INDEX NUMBER CAL, 38. SANFRA, 85	MONUMENT HISTORIC VIEW Abandoned Ships, 1849-50
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. CAL-1557	History - Following the discovery of gold in 1848, there soon came a rush of fortune seekers to California (largely in 1849). Many vessels were abandoned in the cove of Yerba Buena - now at the foot of Market Street and North along the pier area to Fisherman's Wharf - during the winter of 1849-50. A few (like the Niantic) were beached and later converted to (over)
